

UN Forces to Pursue Army of Tshombe

By ROBIN P. MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Katangan President Mose Tshombe was reported today making a new bid for negotiations as U.N. combat force prepared to close in on the remnants of his resistance forces at Kolwezi.

But if there are no negotiations and U.N. troops continue advancing, Tshombe declared in an interview, "We shall fight to the end. If Kolwezi falls, then we will fight in the bush."

Tshombe was interviewed in Kolwezi by Adrian Porter of The Associated Press and a Belgian newsmen as U.N. Indian, Irish and Ethiopian troops chased dwindling Katangan forces out of Jadotville without a fight.

A rearguard of Tshombe's gendarmes and white mercenaries fled in automobiles seized from civilians, yielding the important copper and cobalt producing center which they had threatened to defend street by street.

The victory left U.N. forces in control of up to three-fourths of Katanga's ore-producing facilities. Tshombe left Jadotville earlier with the main body of Katangans and set up the remnants of his government in Kolwezi, 150 miles northwest of his former capital of Elisabethville and 80 miles beyond Jadotville.

"I hear that (U.N. Secretary-General) U Thant wants me to start negotiations," Tshombe said. "I am disposed to do so."

He said he had been waiting in vain for a U.N. plane to pick him up to return to Elisabethville for talks and also for word from the American and British consuls in Elisabethville guaranteeing his safety.

There was no indication here on what Tshombe based his statement that Thant wished negotiations. The secretary-general on Wednesday rejected Tshombe's condition for talks — a cease-fire on the Jadotville road and the consular escort — and said the time was past for negotiations. He said Tshombe must now indicate by actions, not words, willingness to cooperate in U.N. plans for the Congo's unification.

The only discussions now required, Thant said, involved technical questions.

Marion County Has 2 Sheriffs

YELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Marion County has one sheriff too many. Both Jack Pace, the incumbent, and George Hickey have been sworn in.

Hickey, a write-in candidate, was declared the winner by Special Judge W. E. Madden following a vote recount.

Pace, who holds a commission of office issued by Gov. Orval E. Faubus, is contesting the court decision, but Hickey has moved into the sheriff's office.

Faubus said Thursday he will revoke Pace's commission and let the court settle the dispute.

Court to Rule on Voting Machine Issue

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A friendly court test for the new constitutional amendment which authorizes use of voting machines is expected to be considered by the Little Rock City Board as its regular meeting Monday night.

The amendment provided for use of the machines in areas which approved them.

Representatives of the American Association of University Women, the League of Women Voters and others who pushed for passage of the amendment in the general election proposed the suit.

W. S. Mitchell, a spokesman for the groups, said they hope to clarify whether Act 484 of 1949 is still valid and whether Pulaski County must hold a second election before it can put the machines into use.

Pulaski voters approved use of the machines 24,460 to 9,287 in the 1958 general election, but they were not installed because there was a question of their constitutionality.

Act 484 stipulates that ballots must be numbered, which in effect limits elections to use of paper ballots. Voting machines cannot number ballots.

But was filed by the Little Rock board in 1958 and Act 384 was ruled invalid by Pulaski Circuit Court. The state Supreme Court ruled, however, that the proposed voting machines were unconstitutional.

Backers of the voting machine amendment in the 1962 general election declared that Act 484 would determine use of the machines.

Mitchell said he hoped the Supreme Court would rule on the test suit before the end of this year's legislative session, so legislation could be enacted if needed.

U.S. Prison Escapee Is Recaptured

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Seabie Gerrell Medley, 21, of Paducah, Ala., an escapee from El Reno, Okla., Federal Reformatory, was held here Thursday night after a Pine Bluff service station was held up by an armed man. No charges were filed.

Stuttgart police and State Patrolmen picked up Medley at Stuttgart about 30 minutes after the robbery was reported by T. J. Bolin, the station attendant.

Bolin said the bandit drove up ordered gasoline, then pulled a gun on him. The bandit ransacked the cash register taking an estimated $200-$300.

The robber ordered Bolin into the car, took him to the Arkansas River Bridge near here and released him, and then drove on.

Bolin was given a ride by one of the station's customers and he reported the robbery when he got back to the station.

The time was 8:47 p.m., the Jefferson County sheriff's office said. About 9:10 p.m., Medley was picked up by police at Stuttgart, 39 miles northeast of Pine Bluff on U.S. Highway 79.

Harold Lammers, Stuttgart Police Chief, arrested Medley in a car which Lammers said had been stolen in Oklahoma City. Lammers said Medley had $52.72 in cash on him and a $3 check made out to the service station.

Lammers said he was notified by Jefferson County authorities of the robbery and spotted Medley's car after getting a description from Pine Bluff police. He said Medley attempted to elude him in his car, but stopped short of a roadblock and surrendered without a struggle.

Police at Oklahoma City said Medley was serving three years for violation of the Dyer Act. They said he walked off a work crew in town Thursday buying produce for the reformatory, which is located 40 miles west of Oklahoma City.

Big Pay Hike for Servicemen to Be Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration will ask Congress to raise the pay of active duty servicemen and reservists an average of 14.4 per cent.

The estimated annual cost of the proposed pay increase is about $1.75 billion. About four million persons would get the boost.

President Kennedy has given his approval to the plan, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said Thursday. It will be submitted to Congress this month.

The estimated cost is large, McNamara said, "but I believe it to be fully justified."

"Remote and isolated duty" pay for both officers and enlisted men would be substituted for "sea and foreign duty pay." The re-enlistment bonus for enlisted men the military wants to keep because of special skills would give way to a variable career incentive pay. The retirement pay system would be based on cost-of-living changes instead of merely on length of service.

The first reaction from Capitol Hill was cautious.

In the Senate, those familiar with the views of Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said some form of pay increase legislation would be approved, but not necessarily in the form and amount proposed.

On the House side, Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of that body's Armed Services Committee, told newsmen he will not comment on the bill until he sees it. Vinson said that the measure would not have first priority on the calendar.

The $1.75-billion estimate is for an average year, a Defense Department spokesman said. As the number of those in military retirement increases, the cost may reach $2 billion or $2.25 billion, he said.

Starlings Just Won't Leave

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia, which once tried to rid City Hall of starlings by broadcasting the bird's distress cry on a public address system, is about to try something else.

Fred I. Corleto, public property commissioner, said today a $40,500 electrical network to give the birds an electronic hotfoot has been installed on roofs and ledges and will be turned on soon.

Violinist's Wife Sues for Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—The wife of violinist Jascha Heifetz is suing for separate maintenance, charging extreme mental cruelty.

Frances Sears Heifetz, 52, asked Thursday for $3,750 a month temporary support for herself and their son, Joseph, 14. She said Heifetz, 62, has assets of more than $1 million.

The couple married Jan. 6, 1947, and separated last May 26, the court petition stated.

Charges of assault with intent to kill were filed Thursday against two Iowa men in connection with an escape from the Leno County Jail here Christmas Eve.

Sheriff Warren Minton, who returned to the job Thursday, was beaten and shot in the hand during the breakout.

Pros. Atty. William Lee of Clarion said the charges were filed against William Perry Burgess, 20, of Nora Springs, Iowa, and Lawrence A. Kiger, 18, of Mason City, Iowa.

They were being held in the jail on charges of burglary and grand larceny at the time of the breakout. They were captured several hours after the escape when they tried to board a railroad boxcar at Stuttgart.

They are held at Tucker State Prison Farm. The burglary and grand larceny charges were filed in connection with a series of thefts in Arkansas, Nebraska and Iowa.

Wins Post on All Man Council

TRIADPHIA, W. Va. (AP)—Miss Virginia Kessler won election to this 134-year-old town's Municipal Council Thursday, despite a community charter which provides that only "six able-bodied men" may serve on the council.

Miss Kessler, 35, secretary, finished fifth in a field of 15 seeking six council seats. The only woman running, she became the first of her sex elected to the council.

Twice, her candidacy was blocked by the council because of the charter, adopted in 1840. But an Ohio County Circuit Court then ordered the council to permit Miss Kessler to run.

Weather Is Gloomy Over the Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Freezing temperature and intermittent snow and rain prevailed over most of the nation today, a typical gray, gloomy winter day.

Snow fell in the Great Lakes region, southern portions of the North Atlantic Coast states, parts of the Upper and Middle Mississippi Valley, the northern Plateau region and the central Rockies and northern Plains.

Rain dampened the north and central Plains and the southern Plateau. Freezing rain plagued the southern portions of the Upper Mississippi Valley and the middle Mississippi, accompanied by considerable fog. Scattered fog conditions also occurred in the extreme Pacific Northwest.

Fair skies covered most of the South Atlantic Coast, Alabama and parts of the northern Plateau region.

Elsewhere in the East, cloudy conditions prevailed and much of the West was overcast.

Temperatures in the East ranged from the 20s in the northern sections to the 50s in the extreme south, with a few teen readings spotted in the extreme north.

Coastal temperatures in the West were generally in the 40s in the northern and central portions and in the 50s south.

In the Southeast, skies were fair and the weather cold with temperatures in the 20s and 30s, except for 50s in southern Florida.

Okays More Money for Med Center

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A special Legislative Council committee decided Thursday night to recommend today that the 1963 Arkansas Legislature go along with Gov. Orval E. Faubus and provide more money for the University of Arkansas Medical Center.

The committee went along with Faubus' suggestion that the center get an extra $301,000 a year, and additional funds if tax revenues produce a surplus.

The money would be used to open some unused beds at the center for paying patients with hopes that the beds might become "self-supporting" in the future.

State Sens. Tom Allen of Brinkley and Robert Harvey of Swiftton and Rep. Joel Y. Ledbetter of Pulaski County composed the special committee, which is investigating financing of the center.

Faubus' recommendation would give the center $3.8 a year in state funds during the 1963-65 biennium.

The full body of the council was to be on hand today for a morning round of committee meetings and later a full session of the council. The proposed Medical Center budget was to be considered along with other proposed recommendations to the legislature.

Act 149 of 1959 was discussed Thursday by the council but no action was taken, except to recommend that a provision requiring counties to hire a registered road engineer be stricken.

The act cleared the way for creation of a state aid system of county roads if the legislature ever appropriates funds to finance it.

Highway Director F. R. Oliver was on hand, but took little part. John Crain of Wilson, chairman of the state Highway Commission, said he feared that money which might be provided for the system would be too little for each county to have a worthwhile share.

U.S. Civilians Capture Reds in Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT

TAN HIEP, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Army colonel from Texas scraped together 60 American soldiers, including cooks, and turned them into a battle patrol that trapped a unit of Communist guerrillas fleeing into the Mekong River delta jungle today.

The Americans, military advisers to South Viet Nam's government forces, captured 17 Communist prisoners. Col. John Paul Vann of El Paso said his men didn't fire a shot.

Vann said he put the unit together to protect an American major with Vietnamese troops. The Vietnamese were trying to cut off fleeing Communist Viet Cong who attacked in force from nearby Ap Bao Wednesday, killing 10 others. Sixty-five government troops were killed in the Communist trap.

"I'm not trying to fight these people's war for them," Vann said. "Our sole reason was to protect that major."

The Americans carried automatic weapons but were under orders from Vann not to fire unless the Communists opened up. He said the Americans did not need to use their weapons.

Vann sent the American patrol out in jeeps and on foot at 10 a.m. By early afternoon they had completed their operation and returned to their advisory roles and field cooking stoves.

Heavy fighting had been reported earlier near Tan Hiep. Two government troops were killed and 12 wounded after a clash six miles northwest of here.

Co. Judge Has No Curfew Authority

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The attorney general's office ruled Thursday that a county judge does not have the authority to establish a county-wide curfew for teenagers, but Pope County Judge R. D. Howell, who did it, wasn't perturbed.

The opinion went to Sevier County Judge Tom S. Coulter of De Queen.

But Judge Howell, who initiated such a curfew last Nov. 1, said he was aware that he did not have the authority to do so, and added:

"But as long as it works and we don't have any objection to it, we'll keep it up."

Coulter said he was considering a curfew to help curb delinquency in his county. Atty. Gen. Jack Holt Jr., who made the ruling, advised Coulter that city councils could establish curfews under their police power, but judges cannot.

Howell said his plan for youths under 18 had been approved by the city government in his county, the sheriff's office and justices of the peace in rural areas.

He said his curfew has cut the number of juvenile cases in his court from 65 in the first 10 months of 1962 to no cases in the last two months.

Law enforcement officers do not charge teenagers with violating the curfew, the judge said, but take the youngsters home.

"Then I call in their parents and talk with them," Howell said. "I tell them that either they will control the children, or we will."

The Pope County curfew is 10:30 p.m. on week nights and 11:30 p.m. on weekends. It allows exceptions for youngsters to get home after organized events, such as school dances and sporting events.

Howell said the County Judges Association asked the 1963 legislature to study the possibility of redefining juvenile law, which now makes county judges responsible for administration of justice to minors.

a scorched-earth policy were only partly carried out at Jadotville. Reporters accompanying the troops and U.N. officials said the town appeared undamaged. Belgian civilians told them Union Miniere installations in Jadotville, which turn out a third of Katanga's copper and two thirds of its cobalt, had not been sabotaged. Union Miniere, the big Belgian-based mining company, earlier had reported Tshombe's forces made good on a scorched-earth threat and dynamited power transformers and electronic controls at the copper refinery.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant sent Undersecretary Ralph J. Bunche to Leopoldville to tighten up on U.N. political, military and administrative operations in the Congo.

U.N. spokesmen in New York said that in the Jadotville operation there had been a serious breakdown in communication and coordination between U.N. headquarters in New York and the Leopoldville office. Diplomatic sources said Thant and Bunche had assured Belgium U.N. troops would not enter the town because of the threat of sabotage.

Knots of civilians on the Jadotville streets told the incoming troops that the main body of Katanga defenders fled for Kolwezi, 150 miles northwest of Elisabethville, the previous midnight and that Tshombe left with them.

The only resistance was four miles outside the town where 10 Indians were wounded.

Lt. Gen. Kebede Gebre, Ethiopian commander of U.N. forces in the Congo, said the column probably would halt in Jadotville temporarily to consolidate and bring up supplies.

Brig. Reginald Noronha, the Indian commander of the column, estimated Tshombe had 2,000 to 3,000 gendarmes and 100 white mercenaries out of an original force of 18,000 men to make a stand at Kolwezi.

Tshombe's air force, which reportedly included two dozen or more civilian and military planes, is based there. The U.N. claims Swedish Saab jets knocked out several of these planes in the opening of the U.N. offensive last Saturday. So far the Tshombe air force has been inactive.

government forces, avenging the setback Wednesday, had flushed out an estimated 200 Red guerrillas.

The government claimed that 101 Viet Cong were killed in the engagement Wednesday. The Saigon government today disclosed a second major setback this week. It said 30 Vietnamese troops were killed and 26 Vietnamese, and one American were wounded in a Viet Cong attack New Year's Day on a special forces training camp near Pleiku, 250 miles north of Saigon.

About 100 guerrillas smashed into the camp, apparently overrunning it and seizing weapons. Source in Pleiku said government forces were pursuing the Communists but so far had not made any contact with them.

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. military authorities said today the ambush by Communist guerrillas of a helicopter-borne force of South Vietnamese troops indicates intelligence security — one of the basic problems of that war — still is unsolved.

As many as 600 Communist Viet Cong guerrillas were reported to have lain in wait for the South Vietnamese, who came in on the battlefield southwest of Saigon two days ago in U.S. Army helicopters.

The Viet Cong opened fire on the fourth wave of helicopters, according to reports received here, and inflicted heavy casualties on the South Vietnamese while shooting down five of the 15 choppers. Three Americans have been listed as killed in the action and six wounded not seriously. The Army is preparing for the White House a report on helicopter losses in Viet Nam.

Army officers said that the objective of the mission obviously was tipped off to the Communists.

These officers said both sides in the bitter South Vietnamese war tried to penetrate each other's ranks with intelligence agents.

The key to success in the helicopter strikes against the elusive Viet Cong is surprise, and this obviously was lacking in the big fight near the Mekong River.

Some officials said one lesson of this action may teach is the need for newer transport helicopters equipped with effective weapons.

The 10 troop carriers used in the attack are not built for armament, although some craft of this type have been fitted with machineguns which fire out the side doors in what experts say is an unsatisfactory manner.

kansas Legislature, which opens Jan. 14.

Rev. Colbert S. Cartwright, president of the Greater Little Rock Ministerial Association, called on Gov. Orval E. Faubus an dmembers of the legislature Thursday to defeat any move to legalize gambling.

He issued a statement authorized Dec. 31 by the association, saying legalized gambling or any gambling is "incompatible with the Christian life."

"Gambling is un-Christian for it fosters greed rather than charity, encourage personal gain at the expense of others, and encourages persons to be free-loading rather than productive," the statement said. "Gambling is morally wrong."

Cartwright also said the Protestant ministers organization wants the governor and the legislature to "seek the full enforcement of all present anti-gambling laws."

Several other church groups have announced their opposition to legalized gambling. Bishop W. Kenneth Pope of the Methodist Church and Dr. S. A. Whitlow, executive secretary of the Arkansas State Baptist Convention, have gone on record as being opposed to an attempt to legalize gambling.

The Hot Springs Ministerial Association, representing 28 churches in Hot Springs, and the District Conference of Ministerial Associations, meeting in Arkadelphia, also opposed such a move.

Bess-Mylett Rites

Arr. Read Dec. 28

Miss Patricia Susan Bass became the bride of the Rev. Robert Lee Hyatt at 7:30 p.m. Friday, December 28 in the Sylvan Hills Methodist Church, North Little Rock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donaghly H. Bass of North Little Rock, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. B. C. Hyatt of Hope and the late Mr. Hyatt.

The Rev. Hubert Pearce officiated at the double-ring ceremony before altar arrangements of white chrysanthemums and greenery. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. A. L. Garthwaite, organist, and Mrs. Bill Paetz, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory satin fashioned with a princess neckline and glove-length cuffed sleeves. The bell skirt, accented with a bow at the back of the waistline, swept to a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of pearlized orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade of gardenias and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Ben Hyatt of Perryville was matron of honor, and Mrs. George Frazier of Hope, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Charles Hyatt of Texarkana, Texas, and Mrs. Frank Lemon of Little Rock were bridesmaids. The honor attendant wore a dress of ivory green velvet with a velvet bow holding a veil. The bridesmaids wore identical frocks of emerald green. All carried veiled muffs holding red carnations and silver holly leaves. Rebecca Bass and Elizabeth Brown were candlelighters.

Dr. Ben Hyatt of Perryville, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Charles Hyatt, brother of the bridegroom, George Frazier, and Fleet Coko of Heber Springs were groomsmen.

A reception followed the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Jake Clements, Mrs. Larry Albritton, and Mrs. James Avants. Mrs. Ann Woods was in charge of the bride's book.

For travel, the bride chose a tomato red wool suit with gold and black accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias. After a trip, the couple will be at home in Rosemark, Tennessee, where the bridegroom is pastor of Rosemark and Kerville Presbyterian Churches.

She Wants Her Divorced Father

By HETN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My father hasn't come to see my brother and me in a long while. He didn't even answer my last letter written soon after he married. I liked our stepmother and thought she liked us but we found out different. She said we didn't want to see him anymore.

I wrote and told him this wasn't true but got no answer. It has been two years since we last saw him. What do you think would be the best way to reach him and tell him it's not the money that counts but his love for us and our love for him? —Lonely Daughter

Dear Lonely: Your father probably doesn't want to stir up more trouble. From what you say, the block is your stepmother. Next time address your letter to both. Make it a brief note expressing love for both (if you sincerely feel it). What are your mother's reactions? She could be a factor too. You're treading on dangerous ground. Don't get too involved. Assure your father of your deep love then give his conscience time to work. Be patient. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet "Stepchildren."

Dear Helen: Every now and then a member of some local charity asks for ideas on fund-raising. I belong to a Rainbow Mother's Group. Though a small group we had commitments which required a good size budget. Several money-making projects going simultaneously may bring in only Calif.

Charles Ray Clark S. A., who is stationed on the U.S.S. Rushmore in Norfolk, Va. is spending a 10 day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Clark.

Mrs. M. K. Mims, Ruby Osburn, Lucy Bateman and Mrs. Ethel Watson spent Thursday in New Boston, visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cochran.

Mr. Nevt Durham of Okla. City, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Durham and sisters, Mrs. Robert Watson and Lois Bowden of Hope.

Mrs. Carrie Mims of Las Cruces, N. M., Parish Watson of Houston, Mrs. Lucy Bateman of Jacksonville, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Campbell and family of Blevins spent Christmas, with Mrs. Ethel Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnhart of Shreveport spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rowe and family of Houston spent Christmas with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watson of Emmet and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rowe of Prescott.

Joe and Danny Watson of Alexandria spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Watson of Emmet.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Story, Jr. and children of Greenville, Texas were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Story, Sr.

small amounts each, but pennies grow into dollars faster when there are several projects going.

One of our favorites is a "Come as You Are Breakfast." It involves very little expense; doughnuts and coffee but the strange array that many of us sleep in makes good conversation and fellowship. We charge each person 25 cents for each item of clothing they feel they must put on to be respectable. Breakfast charge is 50 cents. Anyone with previous plans pays for her breakfast just as if she were there.

Another fund raising project is our "Traveling Gypsy Basket." Each person put in an article after placing as much money in a sealed envelope as they feel the item they took out is worth. With 25 or 50 people in a group, the money adds up.

We also have car washes in space donated by local service stations and everything is profit. Our Patchwork Apron is fun. Each person, as the apron travels, sews a patch on a pre-made apron and under the patch slips the amount of money equivalent to her age. A bakeless Bake Sale proves profitable too. A regular Bake sale with all goodies donated is a good money maker. Here's hoping these ideas will spark more. —Grace M. Vinzens, Colton, Calif.

I love people; my daughter-in-law hates everybody, including me. She's a self-centered, bleary-eyed, bleached blonde of 42 who doesn't know the meaning of the word love.

My son was a Marine at 17 and saw plenty of action in the war. He's getting more of it at home. Last night he and his wife passed out on the sofa after a drinking bout. It frics me to see him wasting his life this way.

He's a good mechanic and could be somebody if he weren't for this selfish family he married. Our whole family is made unhappy by our inability to help him. Rather than see him penniless I do give him money—maybe I shouldn't. This situation involves so many. Is there a solution? —Alway Troubled

Dear Alway: You are doing more harm than good by helping to the extent you describe. Try a hands-off policy. If your daughter-in-law is as bad as you think, the marriage will crack up regardless.

Stay discreetly out of the picture. Tell your son that for the peace of everybody concerned, he must make other living arrangements. Offer to pay the first month's rent then call quits. Give him and his wife a chance to work out their own salvation. If your house is too big and lonely for you, find a tenant for the half occupied by your son and his family. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Mothers-in-Law."

No Policy Change by Castro Seen

By GEORGE ARPELO

HAVANA (AP)—Western diplomats searched in vain today for anything in Prime Minister Fidel Castro's anniversary speech that they could interpret as a promise of any basic change in U.S.-Cuban relations.

Most of the 90-minute speech Wednesday, following a military parade that displayed for the first time in Cuba ground-to-air and coastal defense missiles, was a scorching attack on the United States and President Kennedy.

On the fourth anniversary of the prime minister's power, six of the sick missile rumbled past big-eyed crowds. Castro made only a brief reference to them, saying, "Today, the first ground-to-air rocket artillery crews in training have paraded past here."

He said they would keep Cuban air space clear of intruding U.S. planes.

But an emotional radio announcer exulted that the rockets could "knock down an enemy plane at its highest flight ceiling."

Washington officials had been looking forward to Castro's anniversary speech for clues that might show whether Premier Khrushchev's backdown in the Cuban crisis might have changed Castro's reliance on Moscow and induced a warmer feeling for Red China.

But Castro took a middle course in the ideological dispute between Moscow and Peking. Acknowledging that he was concerned by "discrepancies that have arisen in the socialist camp," Castro said, "our duty is to struggle for unity inside the socialist family."

He was as firm as ever against U.S. demands—recently soft-pedaled—for international inspection to insure that all the Soviet "offensive" missiles and jet bombers have left Cuba.

Stressing Cuban sovereignty, he said, "for that reason we do not accept the unilateral inspection intended by imperialism to humiliate. For that reason there was no inspection, there will be no inspection."

Castro called President Kennedy a "vulgar bandit chief" and said the U.S. chief executive had degraded his high office more than any other president.

Castro said he had forced the United States to pay an indemnity of $53 million for the release of the Bay of Pigs invasion prisoners.

"For the first time in its history, imperialism paid an indemnification of war," he declared.

Unemployment Pay Drops

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A total of $12,317,822 was paid in unemployment insurance benefits in Arkansas in 1962, the state Employment Security Division said today.

The figure represented a decrease of $3,400,099 from the $16,717,921 paid in 1961.

Unemployment compensation first payments were made to 49,952 claimants in 1962, while 56,362 first payments were made in 1961.

The monthly average paid in 1962 was $1,068,152 compared to $1,351,493 in 1961.

Rules Man Is Still Alderman

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A

Waldo alderman who moved away from the city in November but returned before Jan. 1 did not forfeit his right to a two-year term in office which began on the latter date, the attorney general's office ruled today.

D. C. Perry, Waldo recorder, asked for the opinion. He said the alderman left the city Nov. 25 and remained away about three weeks. Meanwhile, the council elected a man to fill his unexpired term. The man who moved had been elected to a new term beginning Jan. 1, Perry said, and he wanted to know if the council should pick someone for that term, too.

The attorney general's office said the man retained the right to serve the new term as long as he returned and was a legal resident of the city when the term started.

In an opinion to Mrs. Ruth Willis, city clerk at McGehee, the attorney general said the city probably could not appoint its first chief as a city police officer because the two jobs would be incompatible.

However, the opinion said, it could be proved that the two jobs were not incompatible, one man could hold both.

H. C. Rains Sr., justice of the peace in Crawford County, was advised that state law prohibits a county quorum court from appropriating more than 90 per cent of the taxes it has levied for any given year.

Atty. Gen. Jack Holt Jr. issued the opinions under the signature of his uncle, Frank Holt, who resigned Jan. 1 to become a Supreme Court justice. Jack Holt said the opinions were prepared before Frank Holt resigned.

Mobley Sworn in at Russellville

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Jeff Mobley of Russellville was sworn in Thursday as prosecuting attorney for the five-county fifth district and named his deputies.

Ike Allen of Russellville was named Pope County deputy, William R. Bullock of Dardanelle was named to serve Yell County. Phil Lowe of Morrilton will serve Conway County and Guy Jones of Conway will serve Faulkner County.

Bullock will also serve Johnson County until Mobley makes a permanent appointment later.

Judge Wiley Bean of Clarksville swore in Mobley at the court house here.

Bill for Vote Registration Is Proposed proposed voter registration bill will be dropped into the legislative hopper early during the company session to that interested groups can take a look at it and suggest amendments before it comes to a vote.

This was decided today by a special Legislative Council committee which is writing the bill. The bill is being prepared to take the place of Arkansas' present poll tax system of voter registration in anticipation of a federal constitutional amendment outlawing the poll tax.

The legislature plans to pass the bill with a stipulation that it will not take effect unless the poll tax is repealed.

The special committee decided today that county clerks will be placed in charge of initial registration and the state will make an appropriation of $20,000 to help the counties pay the cost.

It also decided a registered voter may not change his party affiliation after the regular annual registration cutoff date, which is the third Tuesday in April.

However, a new registrant would be able to register up to 30 days before any election.

A council committee decided Thursday night to recommend that the legislature go along with Gov. Orval E. Faubus and provide more money for the University of Arkansas Medical Center. The committee etc. 2nd graf LR10.

Would Ban Sale of Red Goods

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—A rally to pump for laws banning the sale of goods in America that are produced in Iron Curtain countries was set for Jan. 28 after a meeting here Thursday night.

W. Glenn Eslinger, chairman of the Committee Against the Sale of Communist Slave Labor Products in America, said about 35 members attended the meeting.

Representatives and Senators from Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas will be asked to attend the meeting, he said, and urged to pass legislation outlawing the sale of Iron Curtain-produced goods.

Publishers Hint of Way to Resume

NEW YORK (AP)—Publishers of the city's nine major newspapers, shut down for 27 days, hint they may try to resume publication without the striking printers.

The publishers said in a statement released Wednesday night that they "must acknowledge their inability at this time to see any promise of success in a continuation of the normal processes of conciliation, mediation and collective bargaining unless there is a quick change in the position of the typographical union."

The statement said the publishers "will continue to seek by every possible method a means of resuming at the earliest date the service of their newspapers to the people of New York."

The publishers called the union's demands "economically prohibitive," and said:

"There is ample evidence, including statements made by typographical union officials before the strike and since, that the International Typographical Union is determined to impose on the publishers of the New York newspapers wage increases and conditions which, combined, will be beyond the earning capacity of the newspapers as well as touch off a nationwide wave of increased costs in the newspaper business."

The striking AFL-CIO union dismissed the publishers' statement as "a typical" threat.

Bertram A. Powers, president of the striking ITU Local 6, said: "I consider the statement released by the publishers as a threat typical of those used by them throughout our negotiations."

Powers said, "I personally intend to attempt to use the same methods to publish that were used by the Chicago papers back in 1948."

His reference was to a vari-type process—through which copy is typed on glossy paper, then photographed, for reproduction. The process eliminates the usual typesetting procedure performed by printers.

In Cleveland, negotiations resumed Wednesday in the 35-day-old strike that has closed the city's two dailies, the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Press and News. The strike is by the Teamsters Union (Ind.) and the Cleveland Newspaper Guild, a unit of the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild. The negotiations Wednesday were with the Guild only.

The New York publishers have offered the printers' union a package of $9.20 spread over two years.

Local 6 has demanded a wage increase of $18.45 spread over two

Turner tried to get Randy Kerbow Moore, the Arkansas quarterback, arrived Wednesday from New Orleans, where he played in the Sugar Bowl. Moore showed up with a knee injury that required treatment from a local physician. The knee was drained of fluid that had caused it to swell.

Moore hopes to play in the game but his chances of seeing action are doubtful.

Bill Joe Moody, Arkansas end, had a hip pointer but is expected to be all right.

On the national squad, Fred Moore, Memphis State tackle who was voted outstanding lineman in the Blue-Gray game, has a back injury, and Louis Guy, Mississippi halfback who starred in the Sugar Bowl is favoring a hand injury, but both are expected to play.

Because of Moore's status,

Turner tried to get Randy Kerbow Moore, the Arkansas quarterback, arrived Wednesday from New Orleans, where he played in the Sugar Bowl. Moore showed up with a knee injury that required treatment from a local physician. The knee was drained of fluid that had caused it to swell.

Moore hopes to play in the game but his chances of seeing action are doubtful.

Bill Joe Moody, Arkansas end, had a hip pointer but is expected to be all right.

On the national squad, Fred Moore, Memphis State tackle who was voted outstanding lineman in the Blue-Gray game, has a back injury, and Louis Guy, Mississippi halfback who starred in the Sugar Bowl is favoring a hand injury, but both are expected to play.

Nashville Comes to Hope Tonight at 7

By CARTER HARDAGE

Tonight at Jones Field House the Nashville Scrappers play the Hope Senior Girls and Senior Boys.

In their first 1963 game, the Bobcats want to defeat their arch rival, Nashville, with whom they had such a thrilling game December 11. Hope won in an overtime.

The Bobcats aren't getting the crowds, they observe for such a good team and fans are urged to get out tonight and support them. First game is at 7:00.

Guernsey in 2 Wins Over Hope Teams

By CARTER HARDAGE

Thursday night at Guernsey three Hope teams played and came out on the short end of two games. The Junior Girls fell 39-15, and Guernsey shaded the "B" Boys 39-52 after one overtime. The only bright spot was the Senior Girls 44-34 victory.

The Junior Girls got slightly roughed up and fell 39-15. The Bobkittens were behind 18-12 the half, but fell to 31-14 at the quarter and finally 39-15. Dianne Purle was high with 8 points. Becky Lewis followed closely with 7, and then came Janie Leonard with 1. Ravenscraft was top for Guernsey with 15.

The "B" Team lost a close one 59-52. It was all even at 15-13 at the First Quarter, but then Guernsey went a head 25-20. At the end of the Third Quarter, Hope edged up slightly, but still trailed 41-37. Then with a great surge tied it up at 51 all at the buzzer. But Guernsey commanded the overtime and finally won 59-52. Scoring for the Bobcats were: Honeycutt, high with 14, Wassell 11, Thrash with 10, Reinhardt 9, McNatt 5, and Henley and Jordan with 2 each. Stephens and Griffin were high for Guernsey with 15 each.

The Lady Cats managed to down Guernsey 44-34. Hope took an early 6-4 lead at the Quarter, but fell behind 16-14 at the Half. They came back fired up though, and commanded the game 31-29 at the Quarter, and finally 44-34. Janice Lloyd was high with 20 points. Following were Shirley Smith 11, Annette Hatfield with 9, and Phyllis Martin with 4. Black was high for the opposition with 25.

Loyola and Bradley After Cincinnati

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago Loyola's fast-stepping Ramblers and Bradley's always-the-bridesmaid Braves are gunning for the same rival—Cincinnati.

The Rambler, currently second to Cincinnati in the national college basketball rankings, are after that top rating. And the Braves, who've finished right behind the Bearcats in the Missouri Valley Conference for five straight seasons, are looking to shake the runner-up role this year.

Both took forward strides Thursday night. All-winning Loyola, a whirlwind 100-point-a-game outfit, went over the century mark for the seventh time in posting its 12th victory of the season, 103-58 over Marshall. Bradley opened its conference schedule with a 72-51 upset of Tulsa.

In other highlights—Miami of Florida's unbeaten Hurricanes won their ninth in a row, 67-59 over St. John's of New York; West Virginia remained atop the Southern Conference, struggling past VMI 86-74; and the Southwest Conference scramble opened with the defending co-champions, Texas Tech and Southern Methodist, having contrasting results. Tech won for the first time in nine starts this season, shading Texas Christian 99-66, while Arkansas nipped SMU 73-71.

Quarterfinals in Jonesboro Tournament

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — The

quarterfinals of the Northeast Arkansas high school invitational basketball tournament came to an end Thursday night, setting up these semifinal battles tonight: Turrell vs. Marmaduke and Dyess vs. Hickory Ridge in the B Division. Leachville vs. Monette and Jonesboro vs. Manila in the A Division.

Hickory Ridge knocked down Viola 43-36, Jonesboro bested Greene County Tech 57-46, Manila crushed Newport 74-63, Dyess tripped Mammoth Spring 75-38, Marmaduke ousted Biggers-Reyno 72-57 and Turrell blasted Mississippi County 68-48 in quarterfinal games Thursday.

Dyess is the No. 1 seed in the B Division and Jonesboro is defending A Division champion.

John Dickson, Jonesboro's 6-foot-9 center, once against proved too much for the opposition. The lanky post man popped in 72 points in Jonesboro's victory over Tech Thursday night.

Strengthening Manila had little trouble getting free from Newport on the shooting of Kenneth Downing, Kenneth Morris and Tommy Towles. Eddie Toler paced the fruitless Greyhound effort.

Turrell broke loose in the second quarter and put Mississippi County away smoothly. The shooting of Harold Seifres, who hit 23 points, made the difference.

Biggers-Reyno, defending B Division champions, couldn't overcome Marmaduke's height advantage. Joe Dickinson got 26 points for Marmaduke and Jerry McIntosh hit 18. Jim Ulmer sank 20 for Biggers-Reyno.

Powerhouse Dyess got good gunning from Clyde Richards (20 points) and Charles Grego (19) to down Mammoth Spring.

Hickory Ridge trimmed Viola on the shooting of Shelby Crouch and Roger Green, offsetting 17 points by Max Potter of Viola.

Sparkman, Amity Could Be in Finish

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) —

This year's Henderson State Teachers high school invitational basketball tournament could have had a battle similar to the finish in the 1961 edition — with Sparkman and Amity playing.

But if they make it through tonight's quarterfinal rounds, they'll battle Saturday night in the semifinals, eliminating the possibility of duplication last year's finish. Sparkman won the tourney, with Amity second.

Both teams cut down their foes easily here Thursday night. Sparkman whipped England 60-28 and Amity crushed Acorn 54-32.

In other games, Lake Hamilton Waldo beat Prescott with overall team power, despite 20 points by Prescott's Everett Jones. Jimmy Kitchens netted 19 for Waldo.

Fast-breaking Emerson fashioned an early lead and never let go to whip Arkadelphia.

Porkers Pull Big Surprise With Victory

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The

Arkansas Razorbacks were the surprise of the Southwest Conference today as they headed home to Fayetteville with a 73-71 basketball victory over highly-rated Southern Methodist to their credit.

The Hogs drew on a 29-point performance by Tommy Boyer and 15 and 13 point marks by Jim Magness and Larry Wofford, respectively, to outrun the Ponies in the opening of the conference season Thursday night.

Boyer hit two key free throws in the last 10 seconds.

Arkansas takes on Texas in Barnhill Field House in Fayetteville at 2 p.m. Saturday. The contest was set for Saturday afternoon in hopes of drawing a larger crowd from over the state.

SMU had been a nine-point favorite over Coach Glen Roe's Hogs. But Arkansas jumped off to a 15-point lead in the first half and controlled the game the rest of the way.

SMU tied the score 42-42 but Boyer hit a jump shot to give Arkansas a 44-42 lead at halftime. Then the Hogs moved out front by seven points in the second half and SMU closed the gap again to 58-57 with 11 minutes to play.

The last few minutes were a comedy of errors, with SMU missing easy shots and Arkansas losing the ball four times on errors. Boyer, the nation's leading free-throw artist last year, missed two at the line.

With four seconds left SMU's Bill Ward stole a Razorback pass at mid-court and drove in for a layup. The scoreboard showed 73-73 but a referee ruled that Ward had double-dribbled and the two points were clicked back.

The Hogs put the ball into play and held on until the end. The crowd of 8,000 was highly disappointed.

Gene Elmore scored 18 points for SMU and James Thompson hit 17. Elmore and Wofford fouled out.

SMU had won five straight before the conference opener. Arkansas is 6-4 for the season.

Bowl Business Means Money for Teams

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—There's no business like bowl business for football teams in the Southeastern Conference. Five of the brethren participated in the holiday festivities and four won.

Alabama, Louisiana State and Mississippi, all winners, each took home a little over $100,000 as their share of the proceeds. Florida received about $90,000 from its Gauley Bowl victory over Penn State.

Georgia Tech, the lone loser, Missouri in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston, went away with about $85,000.

The exact financial figures are not available in many instances but officials have given estimates of what to expect.

For instance, the final Rose Bowl figures will not be released until May. Tournament of Roses officials estimate the total should be higher than last year's $1,004,000 from all sources. After the tournament takes out 25 per cent for rent and game expenses, the remainder — approximately $750,000 is split 50-50.

Each conference gives the conference office a small amount for expenses and then divides the remainder equally among all teams in the conference. The competing teams, Wisconsin and Southern California, get no more than the other conference members. Wisconsin has to split it 10 ways in the Big Ten. There are six members in the Athletic Association of Western Universities.

As all the SEC schools get a piece of each other's bowls, Alabama, LSU and Mississippi probably will wind up with about $120,000 each.

socked Van Cove 60-46, Delight whipped Mena 47-36, Prattville nudged Ouachita 66-57, Waldo blasted Prescott 66-47 and Emerson tripped Arkadelphia 50-37.

The schedule calls for Emerson vs. Amity, Lake Hamilton vs. Sparkman, Stephens vs. Delight and Prattville vs. Waldo tonight.

Sparkman used the shooting of Hubert Langley and Johnny Rucker to coast past England.

Lake Hamilton had too much height in Coy Cozart, Ronnie Sheets and Charles Sanders and Van Cove fell away.

Harold Alexander and Allen McDonald each got 14 points pacing Delight to its triumph and Prattville came from behind on the shooting of Roy and Mike Pumphrey to down Ouachita.

Waldo beat Prescott with overall team power, despite 20 points by Prescott's Everett Jones. Jimmy Kitchens netted 19 for Waldo.

Fast-breaking Emerson fashioned an early lead and never let go to whip Arkadelphia.

NCAA Opens Convention in California

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association opens its 57th annual convention today with the more-bitter-than-ever amateur sports dispute with the Amateur Athletic Union sure to occupy most of the attention.

Strictly college matters, whether routine or significant, which usually dominate this annual meeting of nearly 2,000 of the nation's college and university representatives seem certain to be relegated to the background.

The reason? The again fierce tussle between the nation's two powerful amateur athletic bodies that threatens to ruin the make-up of U.S. teams for international competition, including the Pan American Games in Brazil this spring and the Olympics in Tokyo next year.

An apparent "truce" settlement of less than two months ago has been shattered in a maze of confusion, charges and counter-charges over what was agreed upon. The main item is whether an agreement was reached as part of a merger plan calling for a coalition in track and field that would apply for international recognition to replace the AAU as the U.S. governing body in the sport after the Tokyo Games. The NCAA-supported Track and Field Federation says yes; the AAU says no, and adds never.

With the break between the groups again as wide as ever, President Kennedy has stepped in, following up the lead of his brother, the attorney general, and has delegated Gen. Douglas MacArthur as mediator. And although both sides have accepted the President's appeal for arbitration before Gen. MacArthur, the situation is not what it may seem at first glance.

The AAU will arbitrate only with the NCAA. It has insisted it will not sit down with the year-old U.S. Track and Field Federation, which the AAU calls a "puppet" of the NCAA. The Federation says it will arbitrate with the AAU. The NCAA, which considers itself only a part of the federation structure, says it will not arbitrate individually with the AAU.

On the agenda for a business session next Wednesday is an amendment to the NCAA bylaws that, in effect, would knock a coalition out of the NCAA Track and

Porkers Upset Favored SMU at Dallas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas upset Southern Methodist 73-71, Texas Tech won its first game of the season at just the right time and Texas A&M was impressive with an 80-54 triumph over Baylor as the Southwest Conference basketball race opened Thursday night.

It was off to a weird start but was no particular surprise since this is the way Southwest Conference cage races have been acting lately.

Arkansas led Southern Methodist most of the way to topple the championship favorite as Tommy Boyer flipped in 29 points. There was a mild rhubarb at the finish when Bill Wace's layup with only four seconds left was wiped out by a traveling call.

Texas Tech lashed Texas Christian 69-66 in another surprise. But it was Tech's initial victory in nine games and the time was most opportune — the defending co-champions thus got off with the leaders the first crack out of the box.

Texas beat the Rice Owls 54-49 as expected and that was the only game to follow form.

Texas A&M won its 29th straight game on its home court. The Aggies just didn't have any trouble scoring and used a pressing defense to hold Baylor well in check. High Scoring Winston Moore was limited to 14 points.

Jimmy Gilbert pitched in four free throws in the final 72 seconds to give Texas a closely-fought victory over Rice. The lead changed hands 18 times but when the Longhorns stopped Kendall Rhine, Rice giant, with only 13 points, there never was much doubt but that they would win.

Texas Tech shot 69.6 from the field in the last half to get the decision over Texas Christian although the Christians led the Red Raiders 37-35 at intermission.

The leaders meet in Saturday night's round with Texas A&M and Texas Tech facing off at Lubbock and Arkansas and Texas battling at Fayetteville.

The losers get together with Baylor and Southern Methodist playing at Waco and Rice and Texas Christian tangling at Houston.
